To Advertisers.—The Vermont Daily Transcript has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and is on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

Interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrifield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

STATE FAIR.—Ten car-loads of passengers came over the Vermont Central Railroad on the Accommodation Train from the South to-day, to attend the State Fair at Burlington.

NEW STORE.—We have omitted until now to call attention to the new advertisement of Mr. Robert Kingsley, which may be easily found in our columns. He has a stock of crockery, Lamps, etc., which would do credit to a city store, and an abundance of Yankee Notions, such as will furnish something to suit the wants of all. Mr. C. R. Pell, who is well schooled in his line of business, is with Mr. Kingsley, and both will put forth every effort to serve and please the public. Read their advertisement.

DEATH OF MR. WEBSTER.—Under our obituary head to-day, will be noticed the death of Mr. Samuel Webster of Fairfax. Mr. Webster will be remembered as the man who had his house broken open by burglars, and was knocked senseless by them about midnight, sometime during the month of July last. The injuries which he received at that time, it is thought, were instrumental in hastening his death. Mr. Webster was a good citizen, and his loss will be greatly felt in the community where he resided.

PERSONAL.—Judge Poland left last week for Prince Edward's Island. It will be remembered that Congress appointed a Committee, of which Judge Poland is a member, and Gen. Butler chairman, to visit this Island in the gulf of the St. Lawrence. We do not know the precise object of the trip, but think it is to make some arrangement in regard to the fisheries on the coast. The Commission took a Revenue Cutter at Boston.

NEW DEPOT AT RICHMOND.—The Directors of the Central Railroad have let the job for building an addition to the Freight Depot at Richmond, of 75 feet in length. The old freight depot is to be moved back about 50 feet to give more room for trains, to accommodate the increasing business of the place.

THE DROUGHT.—A New York Paper says the great dearth at the mountain resorts in Vermont is heinous. It seems to us the same malady afflicts only too many places in the State.

A vote taken on an Erie train yesterday morning, gave Grant 160, Seymour 110.

The State Fair.

BURLINGTON, Monday Evening, September 7, 1868.

Preparations for the State Fair were complete to-day, when intelligence was received that ten car-loads of cattle were en route from Rutland, and orders were at once issued for the construction of additional stalls. The preparations otherwise are most complete, and the accommodations are supposed to be ample for everything that may be entered for exhibition. There have already arrived, many animals, but only a very small proportion of those entered.

We notice, among those already here, a portion of the herd of Messrs. Winslow & Sons, of Putney, one of the finest in New England, and probably much the best in Vermont. They have so often taken first prizes that many of their best animals are ruled out of the competition, but we shall be surprised if they do not carry off their full share of prizes. They have twelve animals here.

D. K. Way, of Rockingham, has his three years old Shorthorn bull, Earl of Oxford, bred by J. O. Sheldon, of Geneva, N. Y. He is esteemed one of the finest animals of his class in this country, and has been doing most splendidly the past year.

The Burdett Loomis herd, now owned by H. M. Arms, of Springfield, Vt., at the head of which stands the 4th Lord Oxford, is here with fresh laurels, won at the New England show, at which both the preceding also drew first prizes.

Henry C. Cleveland, of Coventry, has 13 head from his herd of Shorthorns. Thomas Baker, of Barton, has five Holstein or Dutch cattle.

The inevitable Allen is on hand with his hen-coops and dog-kennels.

Of the horses I have seen but little, but enough to enable me to say with confidence that this show will be superior to anything that has preceded it in this State.

Of sheep, the only animals on the ground at the time I left was the flock of Col. E. S. Stowell, of Cornwall, including his celebrated ram "Golden Fleeced."

Floral and Mechanics' halls are fitted up in a style unsurpassed by anything I have ever seen, but the articles are not in place.

The prospect now is that to-morrow will be fair, and the Fair a success.

O. S. B.

The Agricultural Fair at Shelton.

We trust the citizens of Franklin County will not forget the annual County Fair which is to be held next week at Shelton. The premium lists have been largely increased and a new building 26 feet by 52 will be completed in season for use. The Society has been greatly improved in its organization by the division into classified departments under the charge of superintendents who have the care and arrangement of animals and articles designed for exhibition.

The Fair is established on the right basis. If the inhabitants of the several towns will second the efforts of the officers and managers, there is no reason why Franklin County can not excel any county in the State.

All should take an active interest in the coming Fair, and contribute towards the Exhibition. The Fair will then be a success.

THE AMERICAN STOCK JOURNAL.—In order to give every Farmer and Stock Breeder an opportunity to examine the merits of this valuable Monthly Magazine, the enterprising publishers offer to send three numbers free and post-paid to every person wishing to examine it. The three copies contain over 100 pages of choice and valuable original articles on the breeding, care and management of all classes of Domestic animals, illustrated with numerous engravings. Address N. P. BOYER, Parkersburg, Chester Co., Pa.

"WHO'S TO BLAME?"—We are this evening, Monday, Sept. 7th, in receipt of the Daily Transcript of the 3rd inst. Saturday, we received that of the 4th inst. We also received last Thursday's paper on time, and two papers in the last week in August. An important business letter dated Boston, August 28, reached us September 2nd. We lately received two numbers of the Rutland Weekly Herald at the same time. Last week's Burlington Free Press has not arrived here yet. The Daily Messenger of the 28th ult. sent here as an electioneering document was distributed Saturday after election. I repeat the question: Who's to blame? I think I may safely say the fault does not lie at the door of the Georgia Post Office.

O. S. B.

THE MISSING CLERGYMAN.—The body found at Bellows Falls Monday was recognized yesterday by his friends as that of Rev. Mr. Campfield of Cazenovia, N. Y.

SARATOGA HOTELS.—Singular as it may seem, there are more hotels in Saratoga than in either Boston or Philadelphia. People throughout the country generally have an idea that there are four or five hotels in Saratoga. In point of fact there are thirty-seven. Even these are insufficient for a floating population of from 15,000 to 20,000, and the Union, when boiling over, has a reserve of 72 cottages for the accommodation of its guests.

FLETCHER MARKET.—Just received, a nice lot Dried Beef, Sugar Cured Hams, Bologna Sausage, Sweet Potatoes, Tomatoes, Peaches, Water Melons and Musk Melons. dtf-94.

The palm of superiority is awarded to Mrs. S. A. Allen for her Improved (new style) Hair Restorer or Dressing, (in one bottle,) and a grateful public appreciates the very low price, One Dollar. Every Druggist sells it. 4w

Reader, if your Druggist or Merchant does not keep Renne's Pain-Killing Magic Oil on hand to sell he will send it at your request, and sell it at the manufacturer's lowest price at retail. "It works like a charm." 4w

It is not probable that Absalom was obliged to use any hair preparation to force his hair to grow to such an extreme length as it is said to have attained. In our day, however, people quite frequently find it necessary to call on science to aid them in this respect. Such will find them every wish supplied in "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative."—Davenport (Iowa) Democrat. 4w

DIED.
